21. [] Representative William Bates called indicating that he had read with care the S. 1035 letter left with him earlier in the day. He stated that he was very much concerned and felt this was a very poor piece of legislation. He felt sufficiently strong about this that he called Representative David Henderson, Chairman of the Subcommittee which would hold hearings. Mr. Bates stated that Henderson advised that he planned to bury the bill since he, too, thought it was a very poor piece of legislation. Mr. Bates suggested that we keep in touch since pressures may force Committee action of some kind.
